Jim Huling to Give the Inspirational Speech at the 8th Annual Turknett Leadership Character Awards

Jim Huling, Managing Consultant for FranklinCovey's 4 Disciplines of Execution, and former CEO of an award-winning company recognized four times as one of the "25 Best Companies to Work for in America," will provide the inspirational message to 55 outstanding nominees, nominators and attendees of this year's Turknett Leadership Character Awards. The ceremony will take place at a luncheon on September 15th at the Georgia Aquarium from noon to 2:00 pm and is open to the public.

Mr. Huling, recognized author and speaker, was the recipient of the Turknett Leadership Character Award recognizing CEO's who demonstrate the highest standards of ethics and integrity in 2005.

Cathy Adams, Executive Vice President and Chief Operations Officer of Federal Home Loan Bank of Atlanta notes, "For more than a decade we have supported Turknett's mission to bring a higher level of integrity to the business community, and it is our honor and privilege to sponsor this important event which recognizes many of our leaders who daily live and lead with strong character and deep integrity."

The Turknett Leadership Character Awards celebrate individuals and companies who demonstrate integrity; relate to customers, suppliers, co-workers and others with respect; and maintain a culture in which everyone takes responsibility for achieving results while upholding the organization's core values.
